

TEMPTED TO CHEAT TO GET YOUR ASSIGNMENT DONE?

Paying an 'essay mill' or getting a friend to write an assignment which you submit as your own work is known as contract cheating.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

This is serious academic misconduct and you risk:

- Expulsion from your institution
- Failing your module, affecting your overall result
- Record of cheating on your final academic transcript
- Denial of accreditation by professional bodies
- Devaluing the work of fellow students and your qualification

Often the quality of the essay you receive will be poor, and you may end up paying a lot more than intended for sub-standard work.

WHO CAN HELP ME?

Take a look overleaf for advice on who can help.

If you are worried about completing your assignment on time or to the required standard, there are lots of people who can help.
