QAA Privacy Policy - our Colleagues

This Privacy Notice explains how The Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (‘QAA’, ‘we’, ‘us’ or ‘our’) gathers and processes your personal information in compliance with the relevant data protection regulation and laws. This notice provides you with information regarding your rights and our obligations, and explains how, why and when we process your personal data.

We act as data controller and/or data processor when processing your data. QAA is registered with the Information Commissioner’s Office (ICO) with registration number (Z570112X).

Our Data Protection Officer responsible for overseeing data protection compliance at QAA and can be contacted at governance@qaa.ac.uk or by telephoning +00 44 (0)1452 557000.

What is personal data?

Personal data is any information which directly or indirectly identifies an individual, for example, your name, email address or telephone number. Special category personal data is personal data that we look after more carefully because it is sensitive, such as details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health and genetic or biometric data. Where we collect such information, we will only request and process the minimum necessary for the specified purpose and identify a compliant legal basis for doing so.

What information we collect

QAA processes personal information to meet our legal, regulatory, statutory and contractual obligations and to provide you with information, either about our products and services or about matters of public interest. We will not collect any unnecessary personal data from you and will not process your information in any way other than as specified in this notice without telling you first.

Our colleagues are defined as:

- employees and workers
- QAA Board and committee members
- contractors
- reviewers
- volunteers
- people who apply to work with us
- members of QAA working groups.

Why we need your data

We process personal information to meet our legal, regulatory, statutory and contractual obligations and to provide you with information, either about our products and services or about matters of public interest. We will not collect any unnecessary personal data from you and will not process your information in any way other than as specified in this notice without telling you first.

How we use your personal data

QAA takes your privacy very seriously and will never disclose, share or sell your data without your knowledge; unless we are required to do so by law. Where you have consented to us providing you with promotional offers and marketing, you are free to withdraw this consent at any time. The purposes and reasons for processing your personal data are detailed below:

| Whether the provision of personal data is part of a statutory or contractual requirement or obligation and possible consequences of failing to provide the personal data | Processing is necessary as part of a statutory requirement. If you do not provide us with your personal data, we may be unable to fulfil our employment obligations to you.
Processing is necessary as part of a contractual requirement. If you do not provide us with your personal data, we may not be able to fulfil our contractual obligations to you. |
| Automated decision making | None applicable. |

Retention of your personal data

We retain your personal information in accordance with the GDPR, which obliges us to keep it only for as long as is necessary. QAA has policy on information retention. If we do not have any requirement to retain personal information for business, regulatory, or legal reasons, we will delete.

Use of Cookies
Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites that you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, remember your individual settings and preferences, and to measure how you use websites to ensure they meet your needs.

Details about which cookies QAA uses, why we use them and what you need to do if you do not wish to accept some or all of them are available in QAA’s Cookies Statement.

How we protect your personal data

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal data from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal data to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your personal data will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

Your rights

If QAA processes personal information about you, you have the right to access that information, and to request information about the following under data protection law:

- what personal data we hold about you
- the purposes of the processing
- the categories of personal data concerned
- the recipients to whom the personal data has/will be disclosed
- how long we intend to store your personal data for
- if we did not collect the data directly from you, information about the source.

In some cases, if you believe that we hold any incomplete or inaccurate data about you, you have the right to ask us to correct and/or complete the information and we will strive to do so as quickly as possible; unless there is a valid reason for not doing so, at which point you will be notified.

You may also have the right to request erasure of your personal data or the right to restrict processing (where applicable) in accordance with data protection law; as well as to object to any direct marketing from us. Where applicable, you have the right to data portability of your information and the right to be informed about any automated decision-making we may use.

To exercise any of these rights, you can do so by contacting us:

- By email: governance@qaa.ac.uk
- By telephone: +00 44 (0) 1452 557000
- By post: Governance Team, QAA, Southgate House, Southgate Street, Gloucester, GL1 1UB.

If we receive a request from you to exercise any of the above rights, we may ask you to verify your identity before acting on the request; this is to ensure that your data is protected and kept secure.
