Exercising your rights

If QAA processes personal information about you, you have the right to access that information, and to request information about:

- what personal data we hold about you
- the purposes of the processing
- the categories of personal data concerned
- the recipients to whom the personal data has/will be disclosed
- how long we intend to store your personal data for
- if we did not collect the data directly from you, information about the source.

In some cases, if you believe that we hold any incomplete or inaccurate data about you, you have the right to ask us to correct and/or complete the information and we will strive to do so as quickly as possible; unless there is a valid reason for not doing so, at which point you will be notified.

You may also have the right to request erasure of your personal data or the right to restrict processing (where applicable) in accordance with data protection law; as well as to object to any direct marketing from us. Where applicable, you have the right to data portability of your information and the right to be informed about any automated decision-making we may use.
If you would like to exercise any of these rights, you can do so by contacting us:

By email: governance@qaa.ac.uk
By telephone: 01452 557000
By post: Governance Team, QAA, Southgate House, Southgate Street, Gloucester, GL1 1UB

If we receive a request from you to exercise any of the above rights, we may ask you to verify your identity before acting on the request; this is to ensure that your data is protected and kept secure.

Processing for legitimate interests and with your consent

As noted in the 'How we use your personal data' section of this notice, we occasionally process your personal information under the legitimate interests' legal basis. Where this is the case, we have ensured that we have weighed your interests and any risk posed to you against our own interests; ensuring that they are proportionate and appropriate.

Where you have consented to us using your details for a particular purpose, we will keep such data until you notify us otherwise and/or withdraw your consent.

Processing Special Category Data

Owing to the nature of our responsibilities and statutory duties, we may sometimes need to process sensitive personal information (known as special category data) about you. This may be for the purposes of assessing the efficacy of the policies and procedures of the Higher Education providers we review, or to enable us to investigate complaints or concerns, and in relation to our Access to HE work for learners registered for an Access to Higher Education Diploma.

Where we collect such information, we will only request and process the minimum necessary for the specified purpose and identify a compliant legal basis for doing so.

For QAA employees, in order to fulfil our legal and statutory obligations, we are required to process and procure that Hazlewoods LLP and any appointed sub-processor (as specified above) processes certain special category data about you, namely your gender and details about your nationality. We only collect and process, and ensure that appointed processors only process, the minimum data required for these purposes.

Lodging a complaint

QAA only processes your personal information in compliance with this privacy notice and in accordance with the relevant data protection laws. If, however you wish to raise a complaint regarding the processing of your personal data or are unsatisfied with how we have handled your information, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority. In the first instance, complaints should be directed to:

Director of Finance,
QAA
Southgate House, Southgate Street, Gloucester, GL1 1UB
01452 557000
Governance@qaa.ac.uk
If you remain concerned that your information has not been handled as described, you may raise your complaint with the Information Commissioner’s Office:
