

DIVERSE PERSPECTIVES

Provides exposure to different cultural and academic viewpoints, enriching the learning experience and promoting knowledge exchange

BELONGING

Offers students social and emotional support, reducing feelings of isolation, fosters a supportive learning environment

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Enables students to share knowledge, ask guestions, collaborate on coursework. projects and research

Defining the Purpose of Online Peer Communities

RESOURCE SHARING

Allows students to exchange study materials and techniques, research papers, and other academic resources

SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Encourages key graduate attributes such as communication, teamwork, problem-solving and digital literacy

NETWORKING

Helps students build relationships, connect with peers and alumni in their field, and develop professional skills

This resource is an output from a Collaborative Enhancement Project supported and funded by QAA membership. The project is led by De Montfort University in partnership with Glasgow Caledonian University, University of Brighton and University of the Arts London. Find out more about Collaborative Enhancement Projects on the QAA website

