A huge thank you to all who have contributed to this first edition and have created a structure for future publications – a genuine collaborative output!

This includes our critical friends from Queens University Belfast and Sheffield Hallam University and the wider Evaluation Collective who reviewed drafts of the content to ensure it was aligned to our Evaluation Manifesto principles.

This first edition would not have been possible without the funding from QAA and their support throughout this Collaborative Enhancement Project.

A special mention for our design student Catie Varley (Sheffield Hallam University) who consulted with us and then designed the zines – fantastic work!
