

© Maureen W. Alderson

FdSc Community and Public Services

Code of Conduct

1. You are a Higher Education Student- you will need to be an autonomous learner and take responsibility for your own learning.
2. As this course is both a lecture and practiced-based learning environment you will be required to adhere to professional standards including:
  - Adhere to the Dress code (smart casual) (unless otherwise instructed)
  - Lanyards are to be worn at all times
  - THIS IS NOT AN ONLINE COURSE- You will attend classes; visits and speaking opportunities and actively engage and participate; attendance improves your learning opportunities and supports the learning of others
  - No eating in the classroom unless authorised
  - No mobile phones unless authorised
  - Appropriate and professional language will be used at all times
  - Adhere to all college regulations and government requirements; particularly with regard to Covid-19 restrictions.
3. You will not take or give offence and be respectful of the opinion of others and they will be of yours
4. You will be active listeners as well as participants; recognising that each of us has something to offer which we can learn from.
5. Be open-minded
6. Respect and celebrate diversity including diversity of opinion
7. Support and challenge each other in a constructive, positive way
8. Ask questions – there is no silly or wrong question
9. Plan the Work, Work the Plan
- 10. HAVE FUN

Student Signature:

Date:

